

Medieval Popular Culture and Arthurian Legends

at the 42nd Annual Popular and American Culture Associations Conference

April 11-14th, 2012, Boston, Massachusetts

Call for papers and panel proposals on all popular treatments of the Middle Ages or Arthurian Legend from any period and in any medium. We will consider all proposals for papers, but we especially encourage abstracts on the following for this year's conference:

- ☞ Arthurian themes in Dragon Age I and II
- ☞ Harry Potter and medievalism
- ☞ The Lost finale and the Holy Grail
- ☞ Medievalism in Martin's Game of Thrones
- ☞ The Mists of Avalon after 30 years
- ☞ New Camelots: Camelot on Starz and the BBC's Merlin
- ☞ Paranormal romance and medievalism
- ☞ Robin Hood

Abstracts should not exceed 250 words and papers must keep to a reading time of 15 minutes (approximately 7-8 double spaced pages). Be sure to include your full name, affiliation, mailing address, phone number and email address on your abstract, not just in the email. Email submissions are preferred.

Deadline: December 15, 2011

Send submissions to Amy Kaufman at: kaufmana@mtsu.edu or mail to:

Amy S. Kaufman

Department of English, Middle Tennessee State University

MTSU Box 0070, 1301 East Main Street

Murfreesboro, TN 37132-0001

Please note: Membership in the PCA is required for participation. Membership forms and more information about the conference are available online at www.pcaaca.org.