In Memoriam

Alice M. “Pat” Browne (1932-2013)

Pat Browne was a pioneer in the development of the field of Popular Culture Studies. Together with her husband Ray Browne, she founded the Popular Press in 1967 at Bowling Green State University to publish the Journal of Popular Culture and to support the nascent academic study of popular culture. The Press flourished over the ensuing decades, adding the Journal of American Culture, Clues, Popular Music and Society, and The Journal of Cultural Geography, as well as publishing hundreds of books on a wide range of popular culture topics, many of which stand as seminal texts in the field.

Pat and Ray worked as a team to facilitate the growth of the Press and the study of Popular Culture. They founded BGSU’s Popular Culture Library in 1969, which remains a premier repository of artifacts relating to popular culture in the U.S. While Ray was a visionary, Pat worked to operationalize the vision. In addition to the Press, she did much of the work to organize the annual PCA/ACA conferences as well as numerous international conferences (particularly in England). This internationalization of the popular culture movement is also demonstrated by Pat and Ray’s global travel in support of popular culture studies and their work to help establish popular culture associations in a number of countries.

Much of Pat’s work in popular culture was out of the spotlight. Despite her critical administrative role, she was a modest person and did not feel a need to gain attention for her efforts. After her retirement in 2002, Pat continued to support popular culture through contributions to the Ray and Pat Browne Scholarship fund for BGSU undergraduates in popular culture studies. She also continued to travel and to indulge her passions in reading, gardening, and English culture.
Ms. Barbara Eden is one of America’s most endearing and enduring stars. Her iconic “I Dream of Jeannie” NBC Television series, launched in 1965, became an instant hit. The network series ran for five seasons (139 episodes) and has been airing continuously on cable and in syndication in the United States and abroad for over 40 years.

Her recently published memoir Jeannie Out Of The Bottle, which debuted at #14 on the New York Times Best Seller list, chronicles Eden’s colorful life and remarkable Hollywood career that spans more than five decades.

Ms. Eden is one of Hollywood’s busiest actresses, appearing in a kaleidoscope of professional and personal activities. During her illustrious career, Ms. Eden has starred in 25 feature films, five network TV series, 19 top-rated network made-for-television movies and headlined at many of the major hotel resorts and casinos, including Lake Tahoe, Atlantic City and Las Vegas where she headlined at the MGM Grand, Caesar’s Palace, Riviera, Frontier, and Landmark Hotels and Casinos. Ms. Eden made her television debut while a contract player at the studio starring in 20th Century Fox’s hit TV series “How to Marry a Millionaire” in the role Marilyn Monroe created in the motion picture version. She also starred in the hit movie “Harper Valley PTA” which subsequently became a popular TV series. Other series included “Brand New Life” with Don Murray, “Liz Stonestreet” and the long form dramatic TV movies “Visions of Murder”.

People Magazine named Ms. Eden “One of America’s 200 Greatest Pop Icons of the 20th Century.” She has also been honored with a Star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame at 7003 Hollywood Blvd near the front of the world famous Grauman’s Chinese Theatre. She was named one of TV Guide’s Most Popular Comedy Stars and has received the Lifetime Achievement Awards from the Broadcasters Hall of Fame and the TV Land Television Network. Ms. Eden’s recent personal activities included a memorable co-hosting of the fabulous 21st Annual Life Ball Charity Gala in Vienna, Austria, May 25, 2013, with special guests Elton John, Fergie, and former President Bill Clinton.

Among her recent television guest star appearances was starring in the Hallmark Television special Always and Forever and a recurring guest star role in Lifetime’s Army Wives TV series. She has also been a frequent guest on many popular network TV talk shows. On stage, Ms. Eden starred in a three year SRO 25 city tour headlining Neal Simon’s female version of The Odd Couple, and followed with a special 10 week engagement in Social Security in 2012 at the famed New Theatre in Kansas City. Ms. Eden also co-starred with Hal Linden on a number of engagements in the Awards winning 2 character play Love Letters.

When there’s time in her crowded schedule, she works actively on behalf of numerous charities including The Trail of Painted Ponies Breast Cancer Research, American Cancer Society, the Wellness Community, the Make-A-Wish Foundation, the March of Dimes, the American Heart Association, Save the Children and Childhelp USA.

Born in Tucson, AZ, and raised in San Francisco, Ms. Eden resides with her architect/real estate developer husband Jon Eicholtz in the Benedict Canyon area of Beverly Hills with their dog, Djinn-Djinn, an adorable, chocolate brown, pure bred Labradoodle.
Special Events

Pat Browne Memorial Gathering

Program Schedule Overview

Paper Table

The PCA/ACA facilitates the exchange of conference papers for those who wish to obtain copies of other’s papers and for the benefit of the PCA/ACA Endowment. We ask that you bring 10 copies of your paper to the paper table during the Exhibit Hours of Operation. Each paper will be sold for $1.00 and all the proceeds go to the Endowment. In the past, over $1,000 was raised per conference.

Editor for Journal of Popular Culture:

We are also happy to announce the new Editor of the Journal of Popular Culture - Ann Larabee!

Professor Larabee received her PhD from the Binghamton University, and has taught at Michigan State University since 1988. Her dissertation was on women’s theater and drama in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, and she is known for her pioneering work on the drama of Djuna Barnes and Susan Glaspell.

In more recent years, she has been interested in the relationships among technology, culture, and media. In 2000, she published Decade of Disaster, which examines cultural responses to technological disasters, from the Challenger Space Shuttle disaster to the Bhopal chemical leak.

Prof. Larabee remains interested in the cultural impact and representation of disasters. She is currently at work on a historical study of bomb-making among radical groups, exploring issues of technology transfer, constitutional restraints on speech, and the institutional boundaries placed around dangerous knowledge and instruction. With Prof. Arthur Versluis, Prof Larabee is co-editor of the Journal for the Study of Radicalism, featuring interdisciplinary scholarly work on global radical movements. Prof. Larabee is considered an expert on the history of terrorism and has contributed to the formation of the historiography of this emerging field. In 2008, as an offshoot of her larger study of radicalism and technology, she published The Dynamite Fiend, a biography of a Confederate agent who attempted to use a time bomb to blow up transatlantic passenger ships. Prof. Larabee also publishes in the field of media studies, and is especially interested in the global mediascape.

Prof. Larabee has overseen dissertations in women and technological invention, cultural studies and radicalism, media and violence, and global media forms.
Schedule Overview

She teaches modern and contemporary literature, drama, literary survey and introductory humanities.

She will be meeting individuals at the Wiley Editors’ Table in the Exhibit Hall

2013 Financial Review

Statement of Financial Position

The PCA/ACA is committed to transparent leadership and finances. In that spirit, we here include a statement about the organization’s financial footing.

Operating Fund

The Operating fund pays for day-to-day work of the PCA/ACA, such as:

- Meeting Space
- AV Rental
- Food & Beverage
- Supplies (badges, programs, etc)
- Shipping
- Website dev and maintenance
- Executive Team & Staff Payroll
- Officer Business, Conf. Travel
- Office Supplies
- Support for Journals (JPC, JAC)
- Support for the Endowment
- Accounting Expenses

Endowment Fund

The PCA/ACA Endowment fund serves two purposes:

Support Popular Culture research
- Research Travel Grants
- Research Collection Grants
- Education Workshops

Support the PCA/ACA
- Conference Reserve
- Grad student, Young Scholar, & International Travel Grants

Financial Oversight

The Operating fund is managed by the Executive Director of the PCA/ACA, who works with an independent accountant to create regular reports which are then shared with the Governing Board. Throughout the year, the Executive Team consults the Oversight Committee—the President, President Elect, and Vice-Presidents—in creating a budget, making decisions about spending, and planning the conference.

Following our fiscal year, as per the PCA/ACA bylaws, an audit was conducted by the firm Sassetti and Associates (Oak Park, IL). The results of this audit were shared with the officers and governing board. The audit found no improprieties. Members curious about this process are encouraged to reach out to PCA leadership using the contact information provided in this program.

Additional Comments

After the April 2013 conference, the PCA/ACA did an extensive search to hire new Executive Directors for the conference. These costs have been documented for the Governing board but are not included in this budget.

Each year, the PCA/ACA donates funds to the Endowment fund as well. Last year, we donated approximately $40,000.

GENDER & POP CULTURE
A Text Reader
Adrienne Trier-Bieniek and Patricia Leavy (Eds.)

Gender & Pop Culture provides a foundation for the study of gender, pop culture and media. This comprehensive, interdisciplinary text provides text-book style introductory and concluding chapters written by the editors, seven original contributor chapters on key topics and written in a variety of writing styles, discussion questions, ideas for activism beyond the classroom, additional resources and more.

(2014. ISBN 978-94-6209-573-1. $36.00)

See a free preview, full contents, and more at www.sensepublishers.com

"The timely, well-written pieces manage to convey some of the intellectual excitement -- and dare I say it, fun -- that the best in media studies and feminism can stimulate. This should be required reading for anyone who's ever watched TV, gone to a movie or put on a pair of headphones!"

-- Jackson Katz, Ph.D., creator of Tough Guise 2: Violence, Manhood and American Culture and author of The Macho Paradox

“An important addition to the fields of gender and media studies. It is certain to stimulate self-reflection and lively discussion.”

“An ideal teaching tool. I can’t wait to make use of it.”

-- Sut Jhally, Professor of Communication, University of Massachusetts at Amherst, Founder & Executive Director, Media Education Foundation

American Review of Canadian Studies

Editor: David A. Rossiter, Western Washington University, USA

Published on behalf of the Association for Canadian Studies in the United States (ACSUS)

American Review of Canadian Studies (ARCS) is a refereed, multidisciplinary, quarterly journal, examining Canada and the Canadian point of view from an American perspective. Its articles – both interdisciplinary and disciplinary – explore Canada’s arts, cultures, economics, politics, history, society, and environment, recognizing Canada’s distinctive position in the world.
